Glengarry Glen Ross is the story of a group of real-estate salesmen who sidle very close to the thin line between salesmen and con-artists whilst being pretty lousy at their jobs. And on a hot, rainy Chicago night, they're given a fantastic, razor-sharp tongue-lashing from company honcho Blake demanding that they "Always Be Closing" or they're all fired. They're all after the good leads which are locked up by the office manager until they close the current crappy leads just handed to them...

THE PLAYWRIGHT

David Alan Mamet born November 30, 1947) is an American playwright, filmmaker, and author. He won a Pulitzer Prize and received Tony nominations for his plays Glengarry Glen Ross (1984) and Speed-the-Plow (1988). He first gained critical acclaim for a trio of off-Broadway 1970s plays: The Duck Variations, Sexual Perversity in Chicago, and American Buffalo. His plays Race and The Penitent, respectively, opened on Broadway in 2009 and previewed off-Broadway in 2017.
